It is absolutely refreshing to read an Oliver North Novel! I am not a prude, but I so much enjoy authors that get their point across with out a lot of profanity. An example: "I hate all this need-to-know horse pucky" (page 128) COUNTERFEIT LIES is a fast paced, suspense filled novel about an undercover FBI agent in the LA area and his efforts to stop the distribution of various counterfeit items.

"The Assassins", the final volume in Oliver North and Joe Musser's action/adventure espionage trilogy, is every bit as good as its predecessors. There's plenty of intensity, some admirable heroes and easily despicable villains, and even a bit of family drama thrown in there. For those who enjoy military suspense tales, this is a good one.
